

Four best places to visit in Dubai during winter

Dubai is a beautiful metropolis that has transformed from an arid desert to the pinnacle of modern infrastructure. Due to its fast growth, Dubai has become a famous tourist destination.

If you have permanent residency or hold a Dubai express visa, this is one of the best places to visit as winter approaches. The winter in Dubai is a lovely time of year with bright sky, warm temperatures, and plenty of activities. With the cooler weather, various winter attractions in Dubai have opened, allowing residents and visitors to make the most of the season.

The top four locations to visit in Dubai during the winter season are listed below.

- Dubai Miracle Garden:

The world's largest natural floral garden is located here. More than 45 million blooms may be found at Dubai's Miracle Garden. This one-of-a-kind garden covers 72,000 square meters and features awe-inspiring patterns and a plethora of stunning flower arrangements everywhere you look.

Look for full-sized buildings, heart and butterfly-shaped paths, and lovely archways built entirely of colorful flowers. The Dubai Miracle Garden is open during the winter months, making it one of the top destinations to visit during this season.

- Hatta Dam, Dubai:

Hatta is about an hour's drive from Dubai and is ideal for mountain bikers, hikers, and nature enthusiasts. Hatta border is also well known for Dubai urgent visa change. Hatta offers a wide range of sports, from riding to hiking. Cooler temperatures, adventurous activities, unique lodging options, and spectacular views make this a must-visit destination for visitors to the UAE. Plus, there are plenty of things to do while you're here. Get rowing on the turquoise-hued lake by renting a kayak or paddleboat. If you're interested in exploring Hatta's hills and wadis, join one of the many mountain bike organizations. As you bike over the rugged terrains of Hatta, take in the lush surroundings and stunning views.

- Desert Safari:

A desert safari is one of the most romantic activities in Dubai during the winter, and your trip to Dubai would be completed without it. For a day, live the Emirati lifestyle with a desert safari, dune bashing, quad riding, sand skiing, camel ride, sunset photography, and a wonderful Barbeque meal with a shisha session and drinks as a belly dance show in Dubai during the winter.

- Expo 2020 Dubai:

This winter in Dubai is a terrific time to take advantage of the World Expo; if you're there in winter 2022, you're the luckiest! Visitors to Expo 2020 will have the opportunity to be inspired by fresh, innovative ideas, technology, innovations and cultural immersion. Expo 2020 brings the world to your fingertips.